A DESPERATE WOMAN trial of the following cases was come in W. Becker et al. vs. Heary Sucy at the One of the resolutions passed by the The terrible attribute of matural seque e Eric Railway is but a natural seque the war waged by speculators against the Eric Relivay is but a natural sequel of the war waged by speculators against that roof. The parties who have wish-held the funds, by means of injunctions and otherwise, necessary to keep the readways in good condition, are the murderers of the men, women and children who were crushed and burned in that horrible bouncide at Pedi Jervis. In mying this we do not parties the shortcomings of Drew and his associates, whatever they may be. The Eric Relivery had been seglected, robbed and pillaged by a sugment of the gutter; to give it connections with the West, that are necessary to make it a through route for treight and invel; to furnish the road with rolling stack and the readway with new frost, both of which the railway absolutely needed. These measures, if carried into execution, would have had the effect of making the Eric a more effective competitor of the Central for the through traf & THE ISLAND OF CRETE. buckner S. Morris.
